

2020

“What Home Means to Me” Poster Contest

BRHA resident places 1st in Regional competition and will compete at the National level in Washington, DC. This is a first for BRHA!

CONGRATULATIONS, Braxton!!

As part of NAHRO's Housing America campaign, a poster contest is held each year for children residing in affordable housing and community developments owned or administered by NAHRO member agencies. Posters reflect the national theme of "What Home Means to Me." The contest is a collaborative effort of NAHRO's chapter/state, regional, and national organizations. National honorees are selected from chapter/state-level winning entries.